

South Carolina DBE Interstate Certification Process

The SCDOT will consider all firms seeking DBE certification in South Carolina if the applicant's firm is currently certified in their home state. Certification is dependent on a review of the current home state certification in accordance with Federal regulations 49 CFR 26.85.

If a firm in another state is interested in DBE certification, the following will apply:

The applicant must submit:

- A complete copy of the DBE application and all supporting documents submitted to the home state DOT/UCP
- Copies of the DBE certification issued by the home state
- Copies of the DBE certification/denial of certification issued by any other state and any requests for a certification appeal
- Copies of personal and business Federal tax returns for the most recent three years (No State Tax Returns)
- A current personal net worth statement dated and signed on the date of the SCDOT application
- An Affidavit (attached) indicating the DBE certification application is correct and current
- On-sites that are more than (3) years old may be accepted if the applicant completes an affidavit attesting the facts on the on-site report remain true and correct
- SCDOT will complete applications reviews within sixty (60) calendar days
- Applicants found to be ineligible for certification will be notified by letter within sixty (60) calendar days and given an opportunity to respond in person or writing
- Only complete applications will be considered for certification
- Ensure documented proof of your initial investment is included in accordance with 49 CFR 26.69(c) & i(1)
