

April 13, 2017

Engineering Directive 54, “Safety Project Selection Process”, has been cancelled. This directive has been replaced with Engineering Directive 71. Additional directives are currently being worked on that will also replace Engineering Directive 54. These will be published as soon as they are completed and this document will be updated at that time.

Leland Colvin, P.E.

Deputy Secretary for Engineering